To The Secretary to Government
Military Department

Sir,

Referring to the Minutes of Council
No. 1156 dated 10th March 1848, I beg to submit for the information of Govt.
that I am unable to procure a good Etching Maker, although I have notified in the Gazette that a qualified person could obtain temporary employment in that capacity for a stipulated period.
There is a person who has been a Copist in this Office for several years on a small salary of 12 Rupees a Month and who has by his diligence qualified himself for making Estimates and doing such work as that in question, and they to solicit sanction to employ him on the allowance of 35 Rupees sanctioned by the Minutes of Consultation: - During the time he is so employed, I propose filling up his place as by another person temporary appointment.

Proceedings of the Madras Government

Read again Proceedings of Government Pension Department dated 15th January and 13th May 1863 Nos 8 and 134.

Read also following:

Report of the Civil Paymaster (Here enter 26th November 1863 No 649.)

Order thereon 16th February 1864 No 59

The Register of applications for pension submitted with the foregoing report from the Civil Paymaster contains the details of the service of T. S.

Veeraswamy Mudali, for whom the Govt.

consented in their Proceedings of the 13th May 1863 No 134, to apply to the Govt.

of India for the higher pension to which the total ^{period} of his service would have entitled him, had his salary

during the first ten years been, as it was represented by Colonel ~~Kidder~~

~~and~~ Hutchins, that it should have been, in excess of Rs 10 per mensem.

2. The Governor in Council regrets that the particulars of Veeraswamy Mudali's

Service as shown in this report leave him no alternative but ^{to} refuse to carry out this intention.

Carry

3. Veeraswamy Mudali being already entitled to the benefit of the concession of pension of $\frac{1}{2}$ Salary after 20 years Service, granted to Servants thrown out of employ by abolition of Office in the Despatch of the Secretary of State of November 1862, (this pension being nearly equal to the highest pay ever drawn by Veeraswamy Mudali previous to 1855) the Government consented to make the application only on the strong and repeated recommendations of the late Chief and Deputy Chief Engineers, and with special reference to the high ^{expressed by them} estimation of the value of S. S. Veeraswamy Mudali's Services throughout. It now appears however that during these first two years not only was the pay drawn by Veeraswamy Mudali only $3\frac{1}{2}$ and 7 Rupees per mensem but the appointment held by him was that of "practitioner" writer, Service in which, as shewn in a recent report from the Civil Paymaster, would not in any case qualify for pension, let the amount of

of salary attached to it be what it might.
4. However ^{thoroughly} fully the Governor in Council may be disposed ~~therefore~~ to acknowledge the zeal and usefulness which have marked Veeraswamy Mudali's Services, he cannot but ^{see} ~~find~~ that the argument advanced by Colonel Hitchins in his last letter that Veeraswamy Mudali's Services in that grade, as Practitioner writer ~~was~~ ^{are} $3\frac{1}{2}$ or 7 Rs a month were similar to those performed by clerks in other offices, at 70, 100, and 120 Rs per mensem, is untenable. Supposing the duties to have been similar in kind ^{in Veeraswamy Mudali's case,} they were, at best probationary and were required, slowly perhaps, but still were required by Veeraswamy Mudali's ^{his} subsequent admission to the permanent Service of Government. The Governor in Council has already remarked that it is no disparagement to say that neither the character of Veeraswamy Mudali's labors, nor their results, have been so exceptional.

No. of May 13th 1863. No. 134.

exceptional as to merit peculiar consideration and has shown that the argument based on the lower rate of wages obtaining 30 years ago tells rather against than in favor of his application, but when in addition to all this it must be stated that the first few years of Veeraswamy Moodelly's service which it is wished, he may be allowed to count for pension, were probationary, and that the whole period of his permanent service is but little in excess of that qualifying for ^a pension of $\frac{1}{2}$ ^{of} ~~the~~ ^{his} salary, which many not without strong testimony in their favor have just failed to obtain at all, the Governor in Council feels that ~~the~~ ^{an} application to the Government of India ^{for a higher pension} can have but one result and that it would be holding out false hopes to lead Veeraswamy Moodelly to suppose that it can be otherwise.

H. E. the Governor in Council is pleased therefore to grant him a pension of Rs 31-8-0 equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ his salary for the last 5 years of his service, under the old rules, payable from the 1st May 1863.
