South Arcot			26	2			4 th February 1864	24-10-125			The Office of Sheriff is a very responsible and much requires a person who is conversant and acquainted with the monetary concerns of the country. The present applicant has proved himself faithful to his trust during his very long connection with the Treasury Department, and his conduct has been unexceptionable. Under these circumstances the collector is of opinion that his services merits the full pension to which the Rules entitle him and accordingly it is recommended that he be allowed the maximum rate allowable under those rules.	12-5-1864	From 1 st July 1864
