Sir,
With reference to my letter of the 27th ultimo, No. 323, stating that, of the Peons thrown out of employ in this District subsequently to November 1860, there are none who, by 30 years' service, are entitled to the compassionate allowance lately sanctioned by the Supreme Government, I have the honor to forward herewith a Register of application in the prescribed form in favor of an individual whose claim to the allowance in question appears to me to be a good one, and I beg to recommend it may be complied with.
