No. 42. 4th February 1865

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

FEB 13 1865 OFFICE

Subject— Civil Pay- Master's Off. Memo No 179 of 22d Decr 64, about- S. Rukmaji and D- Venkamma's pensions.

Rukmaji, as Stamp Daroga, appears to have been paid from the General Revenues, the charge being debited to "Revenue Charges General", minor Head, "Stamps Charges". The pay of the "Fixed establishment of servants" of this (stamps) department, is debited in the monthly account of March 1859 in lumps "from April 1858 to Feby. 1859." This long delay in payment, appears to have been of the omission of Rukmaji's name in the Returns submitted to the Civil auditor's Office.

2. Copies of the orders (3) required about D Venkamma are enclosed. From No I, it will be observed that the (late) "Northern Provincial Court" ordered his restitution, as there were no sufficient grounds for his dismissal. No II (17th July, 62) directs his removal from Konada as "the (salt) Revenue was not properly managed"; but a promise was at the same time thereon made for his re-employment, which was done by No III of 10th Nov. 63 the same year.
