In reply to the queries propounded in your letter No. 40, dated 23rd December 1854, I beg to state that from 8 Fakedo herewith forwarded, which were received by Gopalaswamy from the late Superintendent of Roads it appears that for service from the 14th April 1847 to the 18th January 1855, he can count for pension. From the 6th January to the 14th April 1847 Gopalaswamy appears to have been employed in the Superintendent's Office, and from the 18th January 1855 to the 30th April 1857, he was employed under Sub Engineer Graham on Trunk Roads in the South West District.

2

It appears thus that his services were of a permanent nature, in common with other subordinates he received his pay from the Road Estimates, he had no leave of such nature that does not count for pension and, moreover, received no gratuity when he was thrown out of employ in 1857.
