North Arcot whose application for pension was submitted with the Civil Paymaster's report dated 12th May 1860 &c. the undersigned is directed to request that Mr. Raidoo will be so good as to place himself in communication with the Controller of Military Accounts and inform Gov^t whether the service of Subbaroyalu Raidoo in the late Army Clothing Office (on account

of which it is stated the Controller considers him entitled to a pension from the Fund which has been set apart for pensions to servants on that Establishment) cannot be taken together with his subsequent service of 22 odd years, as a whole, and pension grant thereupon under the Civil Pension Rules the Clothing Board having now become a Govt Establishment.
If this cannot be done, the Govt wish to be informed what amount of pension Subbaroyal will receive from the Army Clothing Fund for his service on that Establishment.

To
Subbaroy Naidu
Deputy Collector.
North Arcot

Sir,

You must surely be aware that this communication of yours is wholly irregular, and illconsidered. I am not aware what right you have to address me personally on this subject at all.

Had you wished to lay your testimonials before his Excellency the Govt in Council you should have requested the Collector to forward them with the papers connected with your application.

I beg to return the Testimonials.

J. Brandt Esquire
Ag. Under Secretary to Government
Pension Department.

Sir,

I humbly beg to submit to you, the enclosed Testimonials, granted to me by my Superiors, in the different Departments of your Government; and request, that you will be pleased to lay the same before His Excellency the Governor in Council; in order that my meritorious Services of 27 years, and 8 months may be taken into their favorable considerations, in granting me a full Pension, under the Rules now in force.

Be pleased to return to me the Testimonials, when they are no longer required, and I also humbly entreat you, to direct my Pension, to be paid to me, through the Collector of Sea Customs at Madras.

I beg to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant
[Signature] M. S. Maroyloo Randoo Deputy Collector of North Arcot.
