No. 118. From G. S. FORBES, Esq., Agent to the Governor in Ganjam; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Chetterpore, 9th July 1864, No. 119.

With reference to the Government Order, No. 901 of the 20th ultimo, I have the honor to state that the late Agency District Moonsiffs of Berhampore, Palasa, and Aska having petitioned me in February 1864, claiming the difference between their former pay and the new scale of pay from 1st July 1862 (the date from which the District Moonsiffs under the jurisdiction of the ordinary Courts were permitted to draw the higher rate of pay) to 30th June 1863 (the date from which the transfer of the Agency Tracts to the jurisdiction of the Civil Court of Chicacole took place), and finding that a similar indulgence had been granted to the Agency Moonsiffs of Vizagapatam, a bill was sent to the Civil Paymaster for the difference of pay on account of all these Moonsiffs, but the Civil Paymaster passed this difference of salary only to the District Moonsiffs of Berhampore and Palasa, and refused to pass it to G. Venkataramdoss, on the ground that he drew his pay for the above period as Translator, and not as District Moonsiff: but G. Venkataramdoss was, in fact, performing the duties of District Moonsiff from April 1862, though he was designated as a Translator on the pay list. If the Government are disposed to admit Venkataramdoss' claim, I presume the charge can be met from the same source from which the increased salary was disbursed to the other two Moonsiffs in May last. Particulars of the sum of Rupees 1560, now claimed, are given in the margin.

2. Previous to the sanction of the Government of India, dated the 16th March 1863, the pay of the District Moonsiffs of Berhampore and Palasa was only 90 and 70 Rupees respectively, but to both these officers the difference between their former and present pay of Rupees 200 was disbursed from 1st July 1862 as stated above.

3. The pay due to G. Venkataramdoss was therefore taken at 200 in calculating the difference above his pay as Translator, which was only 70. The arrears were claimed from 1st July 1862, because all the other District Moonsiffs were permitted to draw increased salaries from that date. I should add that when Venkataramdoss was named by the late Judge, Mr. Knox, to officiate as Moonsiff of Aska, he ceased to be borne on the Agency pay lists, and his appointment was abolished in consequence of the reductions then effected in the Agency establishment.

4. Some little time after, however, Mr. Knox, for some reason which I have never understood, named as Moonsiff of Aska an elderly man, formerly Sudder Ameen of the then Court at Itchapore, and who had been drawing a pension of 100 Rupees a month for more than a year, and who is certainly not superior to Venkataramdoss in energy or ability. The consequence is that the latter, after 28 years' service, now finds himself without employment of any kind, and unable in consequence to complete his full time for a pension. The Government will see therefore that his case is one of considerable hardship.

Referred to the Civil Paymaster, who is requested to report on what grounds the District Moonsiffs in Ganjam and Vizagapatam, who were subordinate to the Agents under the arrangements which were altered under the sanction conveyed in the Proceedings of the Government of India, dated 16th March 1863, No. 933, were allowed to draw the difference between their former salaries and the increased rate retrospectively from the 1st July 1862.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Fixed Department.

With reference to Government Order of yesterday's date, the undersigned has the honor to state that the District Moonsiffs under the Agents in Ganjam and Vizagapatam were allowed to receive the difference between their former salaries and the increased rates from 1st July 1862, upon the ground that there was apparently no difference, except as regards pay between them and the District Moonsiffs under the Civil Courts, and as the latter were granted the increased rates of salary sanctioned in the orders of the Government of India, No. 2905, dated 15th April 1862, from 1st July 1862 (Government Order, No. 1345, dated 18th August 1862), it was considered that there was no objection to the Agents' Moonsiffs being likewise permitted to do so.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
30th July 1864.

(Signed) R. W. LODWICK,
Civil Paymaster.

To the Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

No. 120.

ORDER THEREON, 18th August 1864, No. 1248.

The foregoing papers relate to an application made by the Agent in Ganjam for the grant to G. Venkataramdoss Puntulu of the difference between Translator's and District Moonsiff's pay retrospectively from the 1st July 1862 to 30th June 1863.

2. In his letter of the 27th May last, the Agent stated that he appointed the Agency Translator to officiate as District Moonsiff of Aska under the authority vested in him by Section 9 of the Agency Rules. It appears, however, that the Agent not only appointed the individual to the office, but also created the appointment, for the Civil Paymaster's report, dated 9th June last, shows that, at the time, there were only two District Moonsiffs, those of Berhampore and Palasa, on the sanctioned establishment of the Ganjam Agency. Section 9 of the Agency Rules merely authorizes the Agents, subject to certain conditions, to make appointments to Moonsiffships within their limits, in the same way that the High Court, under Regulation VI of 1816, Section 6, make appointments to Moonsiffships in the Zillahs. It is only with the sanction of the Government of India that a stipendiary appointment can be created.

3. In his more recent letter, Mr. Forbes explains that the Agency Moonsiffs of Vizagapatam and the two Ganjam Moonsiffs, already referred to, have been granted by the Civil Paymaster the difference between their former salaries and the new

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 18th August 1864.

rate of pay retrospectively for the same period embraced in his recommendation in favor of Venkataramdoss. The Civil Paymaster's Memorandum recorded above shows the grounds on which he passed the enhanced allowance to the late Agency Moonsiffs from a date one year earlier than that on which the sanction applicable to them came into operation. The Government cannot admit the validity of these grounds as the Agency Moonsiffs were clearly not embraced in the Order of the Government of India 15th April 1862, Financial Department, No. 2905, which applied only to District Moonsiffs in Provinces under the ordinary regulations, and not to those in the Agency Tracts. It is no less clear that the Agent quite exceeded his power in creating a new appointment as he did in the case of Venkataramdoss whom he made District Moonsiff of Aska.

4. As it would be hard on the former Agency Moonsiffs if they were now put under stoppages, the Governor in Council will not direct the issue of retrenchments against them, and as it is only just that the same advantage should be conceded to Venkataramdoss, whose claims are in substance good, being founded on the efficient performance of the duties of the office, His Honor in Council resolves, under all the circumstances of his case, to authorize the disbursement to him of the difference between the salary already drawn by him and the pay of a 3rd Class Moonsiff from the 1st July 1862 to the 30th June 1863. The amount will be defrayed from any savings available or expected in the current year's Budget under Law and Justice.

From

G. S. Forbes Esqre
Agent to the Governor in Ganjam

To

R. Lodwick Esqre
Civil Paymaster.

Sir,

Fort St George

I have the honor to submit an application for Superannuation pension from Gundumulla Venkataramdoss Pentulu late Moonsiff of Aska.

2. The applicants continuous service under Government is 28 years 9 months & 15 days. But as he for-fits under the new Rules 1 year and 7 months on account of age, and 5 months & 27 days on account of

of Sick leave, his service is reduced to 28 years 8 months and 18 days.

3 G. Venkataramdas appears to have rendered good service to Government in the Gumsir Rebellion of 1846-47, in the Nimdy Disturbances of 1851 & 52, and in the Brugal Mutiny of 1857. His conduct in the Agency of this District seems to have given satisfaction to my predecessors. I have already, in my letter to Government of the 9th July last No. 119, expressed my opinion of his energy and ability. The reasons which led to his being thrown out of employment are also fully detailed in the same communication.

4 The applicant is under Rule

Rule VIII of the Pensions Rules eligible to a Superannuation Pension of Rupees 45-12-0 per mensem from 16th November 1863 the date following that on which he was thrown out of employ.
