Civil Pension Department.

Notification.

Fort Saint George 4th July 1865.

The Heads of the several Departments and Offices under this Government, are directed in future to submit all applications for Pensions or Gratuities from individuals on their respective Establishments, in the annexed form, to the Accountant General for verification, instead of to the Civil Paymaster as heretofore. The Accountant General, after filling up the blank form upon the reverse of each application, will transmit it in due course for the final orders of Government.

2. Heads of Offices are warned to be careful that applications for Pension are sent up in as complete a form as possible, so as to avoid unnecessary delay and correspondence upon points that may have been omitted. Explanation should invariably be given of the circumstances under which individuals may have been removed from, and restored to the Public Service, and the Orders of Government, or the Board of Revenue, if any, should be quoted.

3. The Accountant General will return to the transmitting Officer for correction all applications for Pension in which this form may not hereafter be attended to
