To,
The Civil Paymaster
Madras

Sir,

In forwarding a List of Applications for a gratuity for 39 Persons reduced in the late revision of Establishment, I have the honor to state that the claims of the abolished persons were not brought to the notice of the Local authorities in the first instance and the submission of their applications to Government at an earlier date was thus delayed. Their cases were not taken up until the receipt of the resolution of the India Government, sanctioning the grant of compassionate allowance to abolished persons of 30 years standing at the rate of their reduction and when it was likewise decided that servants of less standing might receive a gratuity. The delay is therefore in no way attributable to the persons themselves but rests with the authorities. The services of all these men have been only verified by the records.
