I have much pleasure in certifying that M. Kurnucksing has been employed with me as a Conicoply in the Income Tax Office, during the time he was then an Agent of the 2^d Division from October 1860 to 16th August 1861. He understands perfectly all the duties of a Conicoply and he is an honest, diligent man, has always been very regular in his attendance and attention to his duties. He understands English as well as the vernacular language and he now leaves the Income Tax Office to join his former post in the Revenue Board Office as his services are not needed in the new arrangement made in the former Office.
