the abolition of the District Sessions Court

		Years	Months	Days
Brother my. Sayer 3 rd Cromwell, of the late District Sessions Court of Cuddalore as a salary of Rs 11 per month.	March 1851	12	1	20

In submitting his claim, I have the honor to state that I consider him a fit object for the gratuity of Government and would suggest that he be granted under the Rules of gratuity of 1856 being 12 months salary.

The Register of the applicant's service is herewith forwarded.
The applicant has been informed that the acceptance of gratuity service will be for future

forfeiture of all claims to Pension for previous service and that such previous service can only be admitted to count for pension on the condition of refusal of the gratuity. He in his application ascribes the delay in the
