Report of the Commissioner of Claims (— " — 27th July 1865. W^o 21)

Order thereon 2nd September 1865 W^o

I think the C. Judge had been engaged to prepare what "reports" he expects. It is very hard on a public servant to prepare false testimony from the officers under whom he has served who know upon in their way when after 20 years service he is returning from physical weakness to stay on. W^o Said the C. Judge up, two keep them in abeyance W^o

The Government are pleased to pass to Francis Nares himself the pension of Rs. 500 per annum to which his services entitle him.

2 The Government are unable to reconcile Mr. Hodgson's Statement that "Reports are very unfavorable to the applicant" with his remark that "he possessed satisfactory testimonials of good official conduct from the various officers under whom he had served." They are therefore compelled to give the applicant the benefit of the doubt contained

For sending herewith for transmission to Government, the Report

a dispensation Pension on behalf of Francis Nares, a member of the Civil & Judicial Council
