TO

THE Secretary to Government

Madras.-

SIR,

I have the honor to forward letters from the Collector of Coimbatore touching a Gratuity which I cannot report claimable. With his first letter he submitted another case on which I will report hereafter: further communication with the Mysore Government is in that case requisite.-

Soba Row's repeated dismissals destroy all possible claim from service before 20th November 1852. As the Gratuity would have to be given on the old rules, his employment having finally ceased a year before the new ones appeared, the acknowledged 18 months break between July 1859 and January 1861 destroy Claim from those six years, though the service in them had been never so meritorious; and the last 18 months would not be reckoned at all under the old rules which gave 3 months pay for five years' service but nothing for any shorter time: and indeed as the Income Tax was avowedly a temporary law it is very doubtful whether employment on any income tax establishment would count for Pension or Gratuity.-

Requesting the return of the original enclosures when they are done with.-

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant.-
