ORDER THEREON, 5th December 1865, No. 449.

The foregoing are applications for gratuity and compassionate allowance, on behalf of certain Jail Peons, who were thrown out of employ, in consequence of the introduction of the New Police in the Bellary District.

2. The applications originally submitted by the Acting Session Judge to the Inspector General of Jails were for 19 peons.

3. It appeared, however, from a letter addressed by the Session Judge to the Accountant General, that, of the 19 Peons, two had died, one was absent, and that a fourth, who had been re-employed, was subsequently dismissed for neglect of duty, thus reducing the number to 15 peons ; but, when conveying this information, Mr. Davidson sent four other applications, making the number, again, 19.

4. But the actual number of applications received in this office, through the Accountant General, on the 9th, 11th and 14th ultimo, having been for 21 peons, the Session Judge of Bellary was referred to, by Memorandum, for explanation, as to the names of the four peons struck out of the original list, and for the reason of the number of applications received by Government being 21, instead of 19.

5. It appears from Mr. Davidson's reply of the 7th instant, No. 67, that 19 was the original number, that it was reduced to 15, from the aforementioned causes, that the individual (No. 8 in the original list) who was reported as being absent had since appeared, and received a pension, under G. O., 18th October 1865, No. 400. Mr. Davidson further adds that he forwarded, on the 26th August last, to the Accountant General, four other applications on account of reduced peons of his Court.

6. The Session Judge's explanation accounts for the additional applications now received from the office of the Accountant General.

7. Accepting that Officer's report, the Governor in Council is pleased to pass to the individuals classified in the margin the gratuities and the compassionate allowances to which they are respectively entitled, as noted opposite their names. The allowances now sanctioned will be payable, in arrears, from the 11th December 1863.

8. It is observed that the two peons Vencataramoodoo and Ghoodoo are not entitled to the compassionate allowances for which they have been recommended, they having served Government for less than 30 years ; but, on the strength of the affidavit submitted in their behalf, the Government sanction the payment to them of the full gratuity to which they are entitled, viz., Rupees 31-8-0 each. There is nothing special in the cases of Meah Naick and Tadmarry Shaik Mussood to entitle them to the higher rates of gratuity recommended by the Civil Judge.

9. It is also further observed that the heirs of the deceased peons Kadamarry Shaik Muktoom and Shaik Emam, Nos. 2 and 12 in the original list, are entitled to the arrears of allowance due to them up to the date of death, if they served for more than 30 years, or, if not, to the gratuities which would have been payable to the deceased peons. An early application will be submitted on behalf of the heirs, through the Accountant General.

10. Orders in the case of peon Bellary Pampanaick will be passed on receipt of the separate report to be furnished by the Deputy Accountant General.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 7th Instant, No. 218.

2. By your Circular dated 14 November last, No. 608, my predecessor, Mr. Ratliff, apparently understood, with reference to the instructions of the Civil Paymaster embodied therein, that Registers were to be submitted on behalf of such of the Jail Peons as had been reduced under the orders of Government dated 6th August 1861, No. 408, and as no such Peons had been reduced, under this order, he submitted a report to that effect on the 26th November last. The peons mentioned in in your letter under acknowledgement not being considered to be entitled to the Compassionate allowance allowed by Government in their order dated 16th February last, No. 191, inasmuch as their reduction had taken place prior to November 1860, have been recommended for a gratuity only.

3. I beg to add that Mr. Kindersley, the late Acting Session Judge, in his letter dated 4th September 1860 recommended that some compensation should be made to the old reduced Jail Peons, and you in your reply to it dated 21st January 1861, stated that you would recommend them for a gratuity, on applications being sent. No steps however were subsequently taken in the matter until the peons now recommended for a gratuity put in their applications.

4. I beg to add that it has been reported by the Deputy Jailor that the services of the said Peons are borne out by the Jail Registers.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Received

The Under Secretary to Government, Pension ~~Public, &c.~~ Departments directed to call the attention of the Civil and Session Judge of Bellary to his letters No 496 of the 28th September 1864 to the Inspector General of Jails and No 437 of the 11th August 1865 to the Accountant General and to point out that while in the latter letter he states that applications for Compassionate allowance and Gratuity are submitted for only 15 of the 19 peons whose names were given in the former letter, he has actually sent in applications for

for 19 17 of the number – Vizt. Nos. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19 –

He is to remark that two of the original list are said to be dead, one absent, the fourth to have been reemployed and dismiſsed, but no names being mentioned, it is impoſsible to say which of the persons is referred to. Undersigned is therefore to request that the names of the 4 persons mentioned in paragraph 2 of the letter No. 437 may be given and also to point out that the heirs of the two deceased peons are entitled to the arrears of the allowance which the deceased would have drawn if alive.

The foregoing are applications for Gratuity and Compaſsionate Allowance on behalf of certain Jail Peons who were thrown out of employ in consequence of the introduction of the New Police in the Bellary District.

2. The applications originally submitted by the Ag. Seſsion Judge to the Inspector General of Jails were for 19 Peons.

3. It appeared however from a letter addreſsed by the Seſsion Judge to the Accountan General that of the 19 Peons, two had had died, one was absent, and that ~~the~~ a fourth, who ~~was~~ had been re-employed, was subsequently dismissed for neglect of duty - thus reducing the number to 15 peons, but, when conveying this information, Mr. Davidson sent 4 other applications making the number again 19.

4. But the actual number of applications received in this Office through the Accountant General on the 9th, 11th, and 14th Ultimo having been for 21 peons the Session Judge of Bellary was referred to by Memorandum for explanation, as to the names of the four peons struck out of the original list, and for the reason of the number of applications received by Government being 21 instead of 19.

5. It appears from Mr. Davidson's reply of the 7th instant No. 67 that 19 was the original number, that it was reduced to 15 from the aforementioned causes, that the individual (No. 8 in the original list) who was reported as being absent had since appeared and

and

and received a pension under G. O. 18th October 1865 No. 400 - Mr. Davidson further adds that he forwarded on the 26th August last to the Accountant General 4 other applications on account of reduced peons of his court.

6. The Session Judge's explanation accounts for the additional applications now received from the Office of the Accountant General.
