ORDER THEREON, 25th February 1865, No. 69.

This is an application from the Commissary General for pension for V. Arnachellum Moodelly, a writer in the Commissariat Department, Bangalore, thrown out of employ on the 30th April 1863, whose whole service amounts to 31 years, 10 months, and 3 days, throughout which period he drew Rupees 35 per mensem. His character appears to have been good; and the Governor in Council is accordingly pleased to grant him a pension of Rupees 17-8-0 per mensem, payable, with arrears from the 1st May 1863, under the old Rules.

2. The Controller's report should have been written, as directed in Government Order, No. 18, of the 16th January 1865, on the reverse or back of the application. The Controller will follow this course in future.

3. It would be, perhaps, impossible for any case to present fewer points of difficulty, or needing less inquiry. The whole service of the applicant was passed in two posts on the same pay; there was only one break; and there would seem to have been no leave. Hence, the application might, with ordinary care, have reached Government at most two months after the date of the claim accruing, i. e., on the 1st July 1863. It was not received until the 9th February 1865, or 19 months later.

4. The claim accrued on the 1st May 1863; and on the 29th idem, the Commissariat Office at Bangalore seems to have sent in the claim. A year after, on the 2nd May 1864, an application was preferred by the Commissary General to the Controller, which was erroneous, as it contained no reference to a break of upwards of eight months. On the 18th October, five months later, the Controller made a reference to the Commissary General, which was replied to on the 7th November. There appears to have been another reference (the record of which has not, but should have, been sent on to Government), and as a second answer to this reference, on the 7th January 1865, the Commissary General sent on, with a letter of cover, a certificate from the Magistrate of Bangalore, dated the 13th December. One month later, the Controller made his report to Government.

5. The Governor in Council trusts that the orders lately issued will have the effect of ensuring greater punctuality in the disposal of applications for pension in the Office of the Commissary General and Controller of Military Accounts.
