To E. B. Thomas Esquire

Sir Collector of Coimbatore

I have the honor to submit lists of my Muzoor Cutcherry and of the Chakkharagire Taluk Cutcherry Establishments as arranged on the new scale which came into force from the 30th ultimo that being the date on which the District Superintendent of Police took charge of Chakkharagiri. I regret I was unable at an earlier date to carry out Mr. Pelly's instructions with regard to my own Cutcherry, this as you are aware was owing to my late illness preventing my meeting you, and learning your wishes on this point.

2. I have not "confirmed" the appointments specified in above lists as they will be more or less subject to change on the Police taking charge of other Taluqs being made with reference to the whole Sub Division Establishment as arranged on the new scale.

This is to certify that I have had for a short time under observation - Venkelapate Iyer, Revenue

Coimbatore District, with the object of ascertaining his fitness for further service -

The above inspector is suffering from chronic skin disease of the legs - and internal piles. he is old and very infirm and I consider quite unfit for the duties of his position.

I do not consider that the man's present condition has been produced by Intemperance or other vicious habits -
