The excellent old Daffadar of the Civil Ct. of Mangalore, Shedi Daood, has asked me for a Certificate, & I comply with much pleasure, having always found him most attentive & assiduous in the performance of his duties.

I hereby certify that having examined Sheikh David, Civil Court Duffadar, recommended for gratuity by the Civil Judge, I am of opinion that he is incapacitated by age for the performance of his duty: and that I see no reason to believe that his incapacity is in any way the result of his own misconduct.

the late insurrection in Canada in 1837, I understand ^{that} he exerted himself in saving the Court from being destroyed by fire, which the Prisoners who broke out from the Jail, had attempted. Taking into consideration his length of service and the good character hitherto borne by him, I beg to recommend that he may be allowed a gratuity of one year, viz: Rs 126, in conformity with the Uncovenanted Service Rules of Government dated the 13th April 1864 No 1915, Financial Department.
