W. H. Heston Esquire
Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Honored Sir,

I respectfully beg to submit the following ^{and interesting} ~~and interesting~~ ^{case} for your favorable consideration.

I have been suffering in my health for some time past arising from continued attacks of fever accompanied with severe & frequent swelling of my right leg and general debility and finding myself unable any longer to perform my official duties efficiently, I beg to solicit that you will kindly be pleased to recommend to Government for the grant of a Superannuation Pension to me.

My service consists of a period of 35 years, during which time I have endeavoured to perform my duties to the entire satisfaction of my superiors and have been regular in my attendance. I am now 57 years old and find that failing memory as well as advanced age are fast creeping over me.

The Pension to which I would be entitled under the Rules is Rs 50. per mensem, which I find will be quite inadequate for maintaining myself and my large family, I therefore beg to solicit that in any arrangements you may be pleased pleased to make in disposing of my appointment, you will kindly do something for my Nephew, who is an ~~excellent~~ ^{excellent} candidate for which out of kindness, I shall feel deeply grateful.

I beg to remain,

Honored Sir,

Your most obedient and humble servant.
