Sir

With reference to your official memo dated 28th August 1865 requesting me to explain certain points in the 84 Registers for Compassionate allowance sent from this Office on the 1st July 1865, I have the honor to state that where practicable the details of the service of each individual have been entered, but that owing to the destruction of old records and the constant change from Taluk to Taluk it is impossible to obtain authentic particulars in every case. The tahsildars were held responsible for the entries and took every means to obtain correct information before affixing their names in verification thereof. I have little doubt therefore that where discrepancies occur the present statement is more correct than the statement for gratuities formerly sent. I may also remark that as regards the discrepancy in the names of the applicants, the house name and name in full has been carefully entered in this list; whereas the house name was before generally omitted. The names of some few new applicants were admitted into this list who applied after the superannuation rules were published. Such explanation of apparent discrepancies as can be gathered from the records has been entered in the remarks column, and I now return the Registers corrected.
