Sir,
I have the honor to furnish the further infor-mation respecting the services of Mahomed Yuseff Hussain, late Tahsildar of Kavali in this District in reference to the Application for Pension in his behalf, called for in your Acting Deputy's Memo. No. 3876, dated 18th Ultimo.

2. The appointment of Chithirani on Dupes 11th held by Yuseff Hussain from 9th November 1839 to 13th January 1840, was "Acting". This should have been shown in the original list of his services, and I regret it was not

3. As to the reason for Yusaff Hussain's degradation in 1851 from a Deputy Tahsildarship on Rupes 25 to a Discharge on Rupes 14, it appears from order, No. 12, dated 9th October 1851 to his address, that he was reduced for failing to bring to account from improper motives certain cheyroot cultivation in his range, but from further inquiry it would appear that the reason for ascribing to Yusaff Hussain the omission was not correct, and an order, No. 155, dated 10th November 1851, to the Tahsildar of the Talamanchi Taluk shows that the Tahsildar, who was called on to explain the grounds for charging Yusaff Hussain with the above omission, was reprimanded for bringing forward an unfounded charge and giving so unsatisfactory an explanation of his reasons for doing so. Yusaff Hussain was in the meanwhile as shown by his services restored as a Deputy Tahsildar on Rupes 25 and posted to the Udayagiri Taluk.

4. It has been shown to have been Deputy Tahsildar of Udayagiri from 3rd November 1851 to 31st

May 1853, because by the Collector, Mr. White's order, No. 74, dated 1st February 1853 to the Tahsildar of the Udayagiri Taluk, he drew the pay of the Officer

I enclose a translate of the order to the Cashkeeper to disburse the arrears of pay to Yusaff Hussain.
