Madras Collector's Office
Saidapet 7th October 1865

From

C. G. R. Fane Esquire
To. Collector of Madras.

F. Lushington Esquire
Accountant General
Sir. Fort. Saint George.

I have the honor to forward herewith for submission to Govt. a Register of application for a good service Pension on behalf of Nanna Rajamannaras Nayados, the English Recordkeeper of my Office.

Ans'd - 9 1865

2. The applicant has faithfully served Govt. for nearly 40 years, and has always borne a high character. He held the Office of the Recordkeeper alone for more than 16 years, at a salary of 50 Rupees a month up to May 1855, when under Mr. Pelly's scale his pay was reduced to Rs. 40. Although Rajamannaras Nayados had, at that time, expressed his desire to retire on the moiety of his pay, viz.
25 Rs. to which he was then entitled, it was thought advisable to retain him in the service for some time longer as it was difficult then by one equally trustworthy and experienced to supply his place, and as he was not quite beyond work, and so was requested to remain on a short time longer. He is now however too far advanced in age, and I have dispensed with his services from the 1st Instant.

3. The average salary of his last 5 years service would only give him a pension of 20 Rupees. But on the consideration of his having remained in the Office at the lower rate of pay of 40 Rupees per mensem, for the public convenience, of his long and meritorious service; and of his having drawn 50 Rupees per mensem for 11 years in the first, the salary of which, though subsequently reduced, has since been raised by Government by a recent order, I beg to recommend that as a Special case, a good service pension of Rs. 25 per mensem may be conferred upon Rajamannars Nayadoss.

I have the honor to be
