This is to certify that I have examined Seeama Pillay, Revenue Inspector, Chellumburam, and find him worn out from old age, and protracted service (32 years), Inactivity, great debility, and failing vision, unfit him for further active service, and I consider him a fair object for grant of pension and leave.

N^o 6171 dated 18th April 1866.

In the detailed List of Establishment from the year 1835 to 1839 the name of the applicant is spelt as Seeramah Pillai. In 1840 it was written Seenuah Pillai, and from 1841 to 1846 again as Seeramah Pillai; from 1847 to 1851 as Sheeramala Pillai, and from 1852 to 1855 again as Seeramah Pillai. There can be no doubt that these misspelt names are one and the same individual, for, in the office Copy of the April List of Establishment for 1840 in which the name is written as Seenuah Pillai, a pencil alteration has been made off the name and writing above Seerama Pillai, which tends to show that the mistake was at the time discovered and was rectified in the following year. Moreover, the Talug Pay Abstracts in Tamil show the name uniformly as Seerama Pillai which is the strongest evidence on the point.

Report of the Accountant General.

Service qualifying for Pension.	Last Average salary the last 5 years	REMARKS.
29-4-15	14- " - "	Applicant has about 30 years service of different kinds but only claims less than six years in pension grade so that the new rules would only give a gratuity of 5 months pay which might be reduced in consideration of the penal suspensions & degradations of his later service. If it be treated under the old rules the same rigid accuracy in points of form (e.g. demanding that the medical Certificate show him to have been solong under treatment) does not seem necessary. The service on Rs 10 is admitted as the Collector explains that the various spellings representing only the claimant's name. Gratuity of 6 months pay (Rs 84) can be granted under the old rules.
