ORDER THEREON, 6th June 1866, No. 213.

Under the ruling of the Government of India, dated 26th November 1864, No. 3469, the Governor in Council is pleased to confirm B. Varahalu Puntulu in the post of Income-tax Head Clerk in the Vizagapatam District with retrospective effect from the 1st of May 1862, and to grant him, subject to the confirmation of the Government of India, a pension of Rupees 30-4-0 per mensem, being a moiety of his average salary for the past five years, in consideration of the post last held by him having been abolished and his aggregate service being only five months short of the period (twenty-five years) which would entitle him to that pension. This grant will take effect from 16th October 1865.

2. The Collector, it is observed, recommends the applicant for a pension of Rupees 34, erroneously including in his calculation of the average the temporary increased salary drawn by him from the 27th October 1860 to the 30th April 1862.

3. The Accountant-General will issue the necessary Permanent Payable Order.

Change of rule, by requiring the confirmation to such appts to be declared retrospectively with effect from the date of assumption of the duties & informing the Audit office accordingly

In the present case the appt. wh. Mr Taylor describes as "Acting" was held from 12 Oct/60 to 30 Apl/62 as already stated. Whether there was another substantive holder of the appointment, and Varahalu was only a temporary substitute during all the time, or whether the office being permanently vacant the "acting" incumbent performed all its duties and received all its emoluments, does not appear from the Papers before ~~the~~ Govt.

He performed all the duties & drew the full pay.

Mr Carmichael reports that Varahalu was "Acting", because the Hd. Vern. Clerk, when made Income tax Hd. Clerk, retained the option of returning to his post: it seems that Varahalu became Ag Income Tax Hd. Clerk in May/60 and was confirmed in that post in Oct/64. It is not clear, whether Varahalu was made Income tax Clerk on the reversion of that Clerk (for whom he was acting) to his substantive post, or on the promotion or removal of that officer = in

The Dy Acc. Genl. does not consider the abolishment of the Income tax establishment, as the reduction of a permanent establishment: & grants the Petr's claim to pension without medical certifte, on the abolishment of the lower appt. viz Civil Hd Gomastha: if Petr. is retrospectively confirmed as Hd Vern. clerk, this claim will fall thro' if the Acc. Genl. is right in considering that the Income Tax establishment being from the first temporary, its ~~at~~ reduction does not bring petr under the operation of rule 9: petr can be retrospectively confirmed & granted a pension of $\frac{68.7.4}{3}$ = 22/8 or — As it at present stands can be given a pension of $\frac{59.2.10}{3}$ = 19/8

19A

Either case, he might be retrospectively confirmed in one of the appointments (i.e. Vern. Hd Clerk, or Income Tax Hd Cl 1st ~~[illegible]~~ and this wd remove the objection of the Exr of Din, & give him a claim to one third pension = of the highest average viz $\frac{68.7.4}{3}$

= 23 Rs

With regard to the 2nd objection made by the Dy Acc. Genl. it is observed that Varahalu's ~~[illegible]~~ service is ~~1 month & 18 days~~ 5 months short of the period which wd entitle him to pension = to one half of his average pay for the last 5 yrs.

With reference to your endorsement on the enclosed Register of application for Pension, I have the honor to inform you that B. Varahálu was not a temporary substitute in the post of Head Vernacular Clerk, he performed all the duties and drew the full pay thereof.

2 The former Vernacular Head Clerk when appointed Income Tax Head Clerk was appointed to it with the reservation of option to return to his post of Vernacular Head Clerk, and therefore Varahálu was not confirmed.
