VIDE { your } order
 { this } Office Letter No. 199 Dated 28th instant 1866.

The undersigned has the honor to point out that the case might have been treated wholly under the old rules, & a gratuity of six months' pay, as noted in the last words of the report, can in this way be granted. In claiming gratuity under the new rules only service in pension grades can be counted; but if the application be made under the old rules, which are still in force for men all or part of whose service was in lower posts, all proved continuous service is taken in to calculation, & it is not evident from the order that the possibility of giving gratuity under the old rules was fully seen, for he is quoted as reporting the claimant entitled "only to a gratuity equal to five months' pay." The undersigned ventures to return the papers. -

From
The Ag. Dy. Accountant General (Here entered 29th May 1866 No. 21)

Order thereon 11th June 1866 No. 219.

In passing the order returned with the Dy. Accountant General's letter, it did not escape the notice of Government that the claim might have been disposed of under the old rules: but since the applicant's service had been broken by a period of suspension, it was not their intention to grant the higher gratuity.
