Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,
18th January 1866.

Read the following papers:—

Report of the Acting Deputy Accountant General.

ORDER THEREON, 18th January 1866, No. 22.

From the above application, it appears that Tirumala Row, late Tahsildar of Streevilliputtoor Taluq, in the Tinnevelly District, has served the Government for 37 years, the whole having been in posts qualifying for pension. He seems to have been twice degraded—in 1845, from a post on Rupees 35 to one on Rupees 25 only, and, in 1848, from Tahsildar, a post held by him for two years, to Muzundar—the respective salaries of the appointments being Rupees 85 and Rupees 30. The latter degradation is stated to have been on account of "careless and suspicious conduct," and there seems to have been ground for supposing that he had temporarily used public money for his own purposes. No formal inquiry took place, but he does not seem to have appealed against his degradation. His subsequent service seems to have been unquestioned.

2. The pension to which his services, had they been quite unblemished, would have entitled him is Rupees 77, and the Government are pleased to pass to him a pension of Rupees 60 per mensem, to have effect from the 1st September last, and to be paid from the Tenkasy Taluq Treasury, in the Tinnevelly District.
