To,

Acting Chief Secretary to Government

SIR,

With reference to the Acting Revenue Secretary's Memo No. 17 dated 15th April last, I have the honor to state that the cause which led to the reduction of the salary of C. Krishna Rao 7th Revenue Inspector in the Taluk of Penkonda in this District from Rupees 13 (and not as erroneously stated Rupees 12) to Rupees 10-8-0 is stated by that individual to have been his entering, in the Caboolaty Chittah, or agreement to cultivate, particulars relative to one class under those appertaining to another and on the error being discovered at the Settlement and rectified, the entries were so indistinct from being blotted that by the direction of the Taluk Sheristadar he pasted a piece of paper on the blotted entries and then transcribed the correct ones. This circumstance having been brought to the notice of the Officer conducting the Settlement by the Talukdar led to the reduction in question.

2. The omission of these particulars in the Sub Collector's Memo

No. 102 dated 15th June 1866 to the address of the Cashier & Comptroller signed by Collector W. A. Foster.

Application is attributable to the order of reduction, specifying the cause of reduction to be

Yours truly merely an irregularity of which Kristina Rane was guiltly without affording the above particulars, which had to be obtained from the individual himself.

3. I beg further to state that Kristina Rane's services as Gunwasta in the Taluk of Dharmavaram from 27th January 1832 to 30th June 1844 should be divided as follows.
