J. A. Ballard Esquire

Collector of Malabar

Calicut

The humble petition of Bolayad Ambroo Dowall, late Government Pleader of the District Sessions Court of Calicut

Most respectfully sheweth

That as Petn retired from his said situation in the 16th January 1865, he was pensioned on the 17th and he accordingly drew his pension at the rate of 10 1/2 % per annum, up to the end of September -

That as the Government of India had stopped Petn's said pension, the Deputy Collector of Calicut directed the Holiam Tassildar to get back his pension certificate and the same was returned to said Tassildar on the 15th April 1866.

That when Petn represented to your honour that he did not know for what cause his pension had been stopped and requested copies of the orders that may have been received on the subject, your honour was pleased to pass an order stating that the Assistant General's letter did not state any reasons and granted him a Copy of the letter.

That subsequently Petn represented his grievances to the Civil Judge of Calicut submitting said copies, when it was ordered that Government would again be written to on the matter.

That Petn served under the orders of various Collectors from 1839 to April 1861 - that he served under your honour from May 1862 to 16th January 1865 - That Petn managed the business of Government during said period with every satisfaction, therefore Petn humbly presumes your honour also should recommend him for pension.

That when all Officers of Government who have completed their period of service are allowed a Pension, it is a great grievance that Petn who was Government Pleader and who had completed his services should be refused a Pension.

That when Rama Row Government Pleader of the District Court of North Malabar retired from from the service he was allowed a pension at the recommendation of Mr Wilson the then Judge of the Malabbar District Court and he drew the same through the Malabar District Court. That of the records of the Civil Court subsequent to 1st April 1853 are referred to your honour will be convinced of the fact.

That is most of the Government Pleaders were either promoted or died in the service they had not the opportunity to be pensioned.

Therefore Peter must humbly pray your honour will graciously take his age and long services into consideration and recommend him to Government for a Pension, as a special case, for which act of goodness Peter is in duty bound.

Thine Ever. Servant

Fort St George

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for the favorable consideration of Government the enclosed Petition from the late Government Pleader at the Calicut Court.

He has been 26 years in the service.
A former Government Pleader was pensioned and Government Pleaders are now far more handsomely remunerated than formerly. Perhaps Government may be pleased to recommend that pension be allowed this old man as a special case. As it was actually paid for some time its stoppage seems, if it is not in reality, particularly hard.

I have the honor to be,

3 Subsequently his Pension Certificate being withdrawn from him he applied to the Collector of Malabar to be informed of the reasons which led to his pension being stopped, but failed to obtain a satisfactory answer.

14. I request therefore that Government will be graciously pleased to inform him of the grounds on which his Pension was stopped.
