Mr. M. D'Monte was not the deceased's agent in Madras: perhaps it might be well to wait until the agents make formal application.
There is nothing known to whom the letter concerning the death was addressed - I am at the Indian Office accordingly.

HA.
I think we had better say that on surrender of the Russians and after the Sub. will be subject to comply with the applicable regulations in relation to the parties who have been taken down the prisoners - They (British and Co.) must I fancy hold the certificates
