This is to Certify that I have examined Mootiah Peon of the Mint, and find that he is unfit for further service in consequence of old age and debility, and so far as I have been able to ascertain his incapacity has not been produced by intemperance or other irregular habits.

Read the following Papers.
(Here entered June 25th 1866 No. 25)
Report of the Examiners of Claims (— " — 14 July 1866 No. 27)

Order thereon. 3^d August 1866 No. 274.
The applicant was not employed upon a permanent establishment from the 1st January 1845 to the 28th February 1858, and his service during that period cannot therefore be counted in support of a claim for pension.

2. For his service from the 1st March 1858 to 31st May 1866 Muttaya is eligible to a gratuity equal to three months salary, and this, amounting to Rs. 21, the Governor in Council is pleased to bestow upon him.
