The Comptroller of Military Accounts has the honor to inform Mr. M. D'Monte in reply to his letter of this date that the Pension Certificate of his late uncle is not in this Office - if not with Messrs. Bainbridge & Co., it was probably with the deceased.

2. If it was in the possession of any one in Madras, the Presidency Paymaster would probably be able to ^{state} inform you by whom it was ever produced, as he is the only Officer who has to deal immediately with the charge.
