{ Memo }

The undersigned has the honor to return in Original papers received under endorsement 1927 of 21st instant with a recommendation that the Resident at Hyderabad be requested to pay any arrears which may be due on production of the pension certificate, being satisfied of the pensioner's death. All such acquisitions to the head of a different administration are generally made by Government and there is no officer like the Deputy Accountant General of Mysore who is also in charge of a treasury submitting its accounts to this office.
