From, A. Meddlerburn Esquire,
Collector of Bellary.

To,
The Examiner of Claims, Madras

Sir,
In reply to your Official Memo No 146, dated July 1866, I have the honor to state that though the name of C. Ramachandra Rao does not appear in any Returns submitted to the late Civil Paymaster, yet his name appears in the Vernacular records of this Office, as one of the 3 Writers entertained under the sanction of the Board of Revenue, conveyed in their letter dated 1st November 1827, a copy of which accompanies, and who are referred to in the Journals of this Office as the Establishment entertained for making fair copies of English records on a monthly charge of Rupees 105. His service for the periods referred to is continuous.

2. This individual is the same person who was employed as Gentoo Writer on the Permanent Establishment of the Northern Provincial Court for the period stated. On referring to him, he states he resigned his appointment there.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant.
