To The Small Cause Court
of Masulipatam

The humble Petition of Shaik Maddur a Dalayet of your Court

I beg to represent that from 16th December 1828, I held several situa= tions in different offices, i.e. Dalayet, Acting Sailor, Jamadar, and as Dagir ~~was~~ in the Masulipatam late Auxiliary Adalut, Special Com= missioners, Principal Sudra Amin and Zillah Courts. I performed those duties with propriety and obtained Certificates from several functiona= ries. which are herewith enclosed, which will shew how long and faithfully I served the Honorable Company and what situations I held.

I now hold the Dalayetship in your Court. I also served in the Salt

South Department for 3 years previously to 16th December 1828-

3 I beg to represent that, being advanced in age, and having nearly lost my sight, I feel it difficult to serve any longer - The period of my servitude is about 41 years. I have no other means of livelihood but by Circars service, and am crowded with a large family - Your Court alone can consider that it is just that the Government should grant me gratuity.

I therefore most respectfully request your Court will in kind consideration for length of my service, poverty, and inability of serving any longer, be pleased to write a few lines to the Honorable Government

Government and obtain sanction for payment to me of the gratuity.

For which Act of Justice and favor I shall be in duty bound ever pray -

12th March 1866. Signed / Shrik Madan

2. The applicants' period of service, as supported by the office Records and as shewn in the accompanying list, as well as from his testimonials, is 37 years, 2 months and 28 days. During his tenure of service, he has held several offices, such as Jail Duffadar, Acting Jailor &c. in the late Auxiliary and Civil Courts, and in the Court also. His general Character and Conduct, during the period of his service under me for more than 2 years and half, has been very satisfactory - which is also Confirmed by - the testimonials granted to him by different Public Officers. Being no longer able to serve from his advanced age and defective sight, he was compelled to resign his office with a request that gratuity may be obtained for him.

3. I therefore beg to recommend that a gratuity of 12 months' pay, at 6 Rupees, per mensem, which was his last salary, may be paid to him.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
