From,

The Civil & Sepsis Judge, of Bellary.

To,

The Acting Dy. Secy. General,
Fort St George.

Sir,

In reply to your Memorandum dated 14th Instant, No 2497, I have the honor to state that the date of appointment of Pampa-naick, as well as the circumstance that he was a Naigue when his services were dispensed with on the 30th August 1860, is verified by the Jail Records which do not however show the date of his advancement to the rank of Naigue, nor whether during his period of service in the Jail Establishment he was unemployed for any length of time. I enclose the man's affidavit to the effect that he served for upwards of 40 years in the Jail Establishment, & that he was never dismissed during that period.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
Your Most Obedt Servant

Read the following papers :—
From the Inspector General of Jails.
(Here enter 27th December 1864, No. 442.)
From the Acting Session Judge of Bellary.
(Here enter 11th August 1865, No. 437.)
Reports of the Acting Deputy Accountant General.
(Here enter 11th October 1865, Nos. 111, 113 to 125, 129 to 132, and 121 to 125.)
From the Acting Civil Judge of Bellary.
(Here enter 7th November 1865, No. 67.)

ORDER THEREON, 5th December 1865, No. 449.

The foregoing are applications for gratuity and compassionate allowance, on behalf of certain Jail Peons, who were thrown out of employ, in consequence of the introduction of the New Police in the Bellary District.

2. The applications originally submitted by the Acting Session Judge to the Inspector General of Jails were for 19 peons.

3. It appeared, however, from a letter addressed by the Session Judge to the Accountant General, that, of the 19 Peons, two had died, one was absent, and that a fourth, who had been re-employed, was subsequently dismissed for neglect of duty, thus reducing the number to 15 peons; but, when conveying this information, Mr. Davidson sent four other applications, making the number, again, 19.

4. But the actual number of applications received in this office, through the Accountant General, on the 9th, 11th and 14th ultimo, having been for 21 peons, the Session Judge of Bellary was referred to, by Memorandum, for explanation, as to the names of the four peons struck out of the original list, and for the reason of the number of applications received by Government being 21, instead of 19.

5. It appears from Mr. Davidson's reply of the 7th instant, No. 67, that 19 was the original number, that it was reduced to 15, from the aforementioned causes, that the individual (No. 8 in the original list) who was reported as being absent had since appeared, and received a pension, under G. O., 18th October 1865, No. 400. Mr. Davidson further adds that he forwarded, on the 26th August last, to the Accountant General, four other applications on account of reduced peons of his Court.

6. The Session Judge's explanation accounts for the additional applications now received from the office of the Accountant General.

The allowances now sanctioned will be payable, in arrears, from the 11th December 1863.

8. It is observed that the two peons Vencataramoodoo and Ghoodoo are not entitled to the compassionate allowances for which they have been recommended, they having served Government for less than 30 years; but, on the strength of the affidavit submitted in their behalf, the Government sanction the payment to them of the full gratuity to which they are entitled, viz., Rupees 31-8-0 each. There is nothing special in the cases of Meah Naick
