From

C. G. R. Fane Esquire
To. Collector of Madras.

The Officiating Civil Paymaster
Fort Saint George.

With reference to the Order of Government Pension Department dated 26th October 1872 N^o 137, I have the honor to forward herewith the application for a good service pension for one Strinivasa Pillai, Quilt-Rent Kanakapillay of the Deputy Collector's Office Madras.

2. The applicant is quite incapable for further service from old age. He has been in the Government service for more than 30 years, and is upwards of 55 years of age; no medical certificate is therefore sent; there is nothing in need to the prejudice of Strinivasa Pillai's character; and I therefore beg that a pension of Rupees 500 being an moiety of the average of his last 3 years salary may be conferred upon him from the 19th January 1875.

The

The service and leave lists are also enclosed.

I have the honor to be
 Sir
 Your most Obedt Servt
 S. Saur
 Collector.
