To,

The Adj. Secy. General

1. Vide your communication regarding the application for Pension for V. Shrinavasa Rao dated 31st October.

2. The service as Karkoon in Bangunapally is taken from the District Pay lists.

3. Bangunapally is a jaghirs which was at that time under Government management and the Establishment were considered Government servants.

4. From the 22nd April 1848 until he lost his place on the general reduction the services of V. Shrinavasa Rao were continuous as proved by the monthly pay lists of this District, and there is no more in the account submitted.

Pers 80/66.

5 As yearly statements only were submitted to the Accountant-General the name of K. Shrinavassa Row did not appear in that for the year 1848 as though appointed to Goodoor on the 22nd April he was only entered on the list from the 1st May being paid as Varkoon of Banganapully to the end of the month.

6 In the list for the 30th April-1849 he appears to have been erroneously entered in the Sanum Talook while the monthly pay list shows that he was in Goodoor as entered in the list of services.

7 In the statement for July 1265-the year 1855/56 the name of Shrinavassa Row is correctly entered in the Chagulmarry Talook as a Varkoon from the 1st August 1855 and in the Sanum Talook from 1st May to 31st July 1856.
