I some time since received your letter and am glad that you seem to be better pleased with your situation than with the constant marching about you had with me — I am also glad that you are trying to get me some old Stones &c as anything in that way which you can pick up I shall be glad to have — You ask me to give you a character, the best proof that I thought well of you was recommending you to Mr Wroughton a thing I never should have done had I not had a very good opinion of your character in a private point of view, and also your capacity for business. Hoping that you will continue to like your present employment

I am Yours Sincerely
