MADRAS,

Dated 16th January

Received

1867.

THE Under Secretary to Government, ~~Public~~ Pension Departments

is directed to request with reference to the applications which have been forwarded for Compassionate Allowance on behalf of Peons thrown out of employ in the Bellary Distt, that the Collector will be so good as to state with respects to No. 47 Peon Abdul Khawder, the date of the commencement of the Peon's service, and whether he was discharged before or after the 11th Decr 1863. If as stated in the List the Peon was first entertained on 24th June 1834 he could not have completed service of 30 years and 10 months (the period given against his name) before the 23rd April 1865 and would not in consequence be entitled to the Compassionate Allowance. Early information is requested on this point.
