Have much pleasure in saying that while I was attached to the Provincial Court as Register had many opportunities of ascertaining his diligence and capability in discharging those duties which were assigned to him. His claims to the Sherustadarship both on that account and also from his father and grandfather having held the situation appear to me to stand highest and hope that if that appointment becomes vacant I shall have the pleasure of congratulating him on his promotion to it -

When formerly entertained in the examination of the several periodical statements Civil and Criminal sent to the Higher Court from the division, which were confided to him, and likewise of the entire preparation of those for this Court, and from his being a ready accountant, and in the absence of any application besides, or of any other servants under them being thought better suited to fill the Sherustadar's post, the Court considers that the
