Respectfully Sheweth,

I beg most respectfully to bring to your kind notice, the following circumstances with a firm belief that, you will take them into your kind consideration and grant my humble request.

I was first entertained on the 1st April 1850, in the Canarese Translators' office as a Writer, and continued in it up to 30th June 1858, and on the 1st July 1858, I was transferred to the Chief Engineer's office on a salary of Rs. 40. per mensem, and was thrown out of the same on the 30th April 1863, owing to the abolition of the said office. Although, several of the Clerks who were thrown out of employment like myself have been provided
