I. Piddoo Naidoo, Darogah, in the Madras Town Police Force having applied to me for a Certificate on which to ground an application to be transferred to the Pension Establishment, I do hereby Certify that I Carefully examined him this day at the Triplicane Dispensary, and find that he is suffering from general debility the result of age and long service which incapacitates him for further effective service, and I declare that according to the best of my knowledge and belief the disqualification has not been occasioned by intemperance or any irregular habits, and is not capable of removal by any treatment.

Explanation on the items required by the Commission of Enquiry on the Russian Register of the unemployed Individuals.

Peddoo Naidoo

N^o 3. Police Officers formerly always forfeited their pay when on leave and substitutes were provided in their place, and as their compensation was then paid from the Police Superannuation Fund no Register of leave was kept. Since their ^{being} brought under the operation of the Unconquered Civil Service Rules, a Register of leave has been opened, but the above individual has had no leave since that date as shown in the Register.

N^o 14. Total period of service deducted has been corrected.

N^o 15. The Medical Certificate first received dated the 16th February 1867 being informal was returned for amendment. The amended Certificate was then received on the 25th Idem but the date in it was not altered. The Applicant could not therefore be struck off the strength of the Establishment before the 25th the date of the final receipt of the Certificate.

N^o 16. Medical Certificate countersigned.

N^o 17. Petition made.
