Madras 6th May 1858.

This is to certify that A. Moorjapatnam
Accountant and Estimate maker of the late Govt.
Road Department has been employed by me as a writer and Accountant on the transfer of the portion of the Road Department ^{works} to the Civil Architect.
He is a very clever writer and a Capital Accountant.
I have always found him to be a steady, careful and attentive man of business. He is at present temporarily employed in this Depart^{ment} on a salary of $17\frac{1}{2}$ Rs. per mensem and I strongly recommend him to the kind notice of my successor for a permanent berth.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 15th June 1867.

No. 37. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Simla, 30th May 1867, No. 439.

Pensions and Gratuities.

Read the following extract from a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated 16th April 1867, No. 138 :—

"But I must observe that an Uncovenanted Servant is not entitled in all cases to the full amount of pension permitted by the Rules; as stated in the Financial Despatch, dated 8th December 1862, No. 205, paragraph 23, 'the full amount of pension,' (and not a pension of 'a still higher rate') 'is only authorized as the reward of approved service.'"

Ordered that the foregoing be communicated to—

The several Secretariats;

The various Local Governments and Administrations (the Government of Bombay, excepted);

The Comptroller General of Accounts; and

The Officers of Account in the Civil Department (the Accountant General, Bombay excepted).
