Certified that I have this day examined Velloo Nair No. 56. Head Gomaster in the Kootenai's Townsiff's Office - and find that he is suffering from general debility and breakdown of the constitution, together with some impairments of vision. These affections have not been caused by intemperance or other fault on his own part. I consider him unfit for further public service - he looks much older than the age given above -

Memorandum.

The undersigned has the honor to forward the Medical Certificate called for in the accompanying Memo. of the Examiners of Claims and to state that the apparent degra-dation of the applicant on the 26th July 1857 from Rupees 12 to 10 was simply occasioned by his transfer from the Choughant Munsifs Court to a similar situation in the Balghant Mun--sifs Court in which latter Court a salary of Rupees 10 only was attached to such appoint-ment.

Memo:

In re-transmitting the Register of Pension application returned by the Examiner of claims for amendment, the Acting Civil Judge has the honor to state that the medical certificate was not considered necessary as the applicant has served out the full time required by the Pension Rules now in force to entitle him to withdraw from the Service without a medical certificate and that the delay in submitting the application was occasioned by an oversight.
