Your official memo. dated 27th February 1867.
Pension Department.

2nd reply. As noted in a footnote to the register of application, the applicant is entitled to the Compassionate allowance under the Proceedings of the Government of India dated 11th December 1863. N^o 6254. Financial Department. This order was communicated to the Collector through the Revenue Board only in May 1864. Immediately on the receipt of this, a list of the persons entitled to the Compassionate allowance therein sanctioned was called for from the Taluks. After this list was received, much time & labour was required to ascertain correctly the services of the several Applicants. This, together with the preparation of the numerous registers of application for gratuity entailed much additional work on the Department, and therefore the submission of the register in question, which involved several references to the Taluks with regard to the station, age, Descriptive marks &c of the applicant, was unavoidably delayed.

Applicant is eligible to a pension of Rupees _____ per mensem, equal to _____ of his average salary during the last 5 years, under Clause _____ Section _____ of the Revised Pension Rules.

The services of Velluvandi Ramesh Nayudu, Kottayam Taluk Malabar District cannot be traced from the records of this office, but the Collector states that they are borne out by the records of his office. He can therefore be granted compassionate allowances of Rs 200/- per mensem from 11 Dec 1882 as lost in their order of the 20th June 1882. The Pension Department sanctioned the gratuity of Rs 12 for his services of years 55-60.

The cause of delay in submission of application is explained by the Collector in his Memo No 610 dated 7th March 1887 herewith accompanying.
