N^o 2441 of 1869 of 2^d Oct. 1869 Recd 6th - - -

From Chokkaiy, widow of Co-maravilu Pillay, late Chowki-dar of Valinokkam pau, Ramnad, Madurai.

2441

States that her husband Comaravilu Pillay, after a long & faithful service, enjoyed a monthly pension of Rs 8-12; & that he died on the 17th of August last, leaving her a helpless widow & 2 daughters quite unprovided for.

Service pensions such as that of petitioner's husband are for life only and cannot be continued to the recipient's families.

Prays that Government will have the goodness to continue the said pension of Rs 8-12 to her or half of it for the maintenance of herself & her two daughters.

From C. E. Thirajoola Mudaly, pensioned English Accountant, Colliery Office of North Arcot.

States that after a long and faithful service of 37 years in different Capacities & as an English Accountant he was granted a pension of Rs 13-12. which is hardly sufficient to maintain himself with a large family.

Bringing to notice his difficult Circumstances, prays that an increased rate of pension of Rs 35 may be granted.

are joined from the records.

Memo from the Examiner of claims dated 24th October 1866.
reference to the certificate respecting gratuity of my office, I have the honor to forward, as required, the papers marginally noted and to state with

Copy of certificate asked for in your Memo of the 24th October last, dated 20th April 1848 - that no such allowance appears to have been paid to the applicant when his services were dispenssed with in the Military Department, as will be observed from the accompanying copy of an official Memo N^o 4526 dated 22nd December from the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines to the address of the Deputy Collector in charge of Treasury.

2. Yetterajooloo Inoodalial also declares, that he received no gratuity on the occasion in question, and that he possesses no documents on the subject, and in corroboration of this statement, no mention of his having been granted gratuity is made in the Certificate alluded to in Column 4 of the Register of application, and copy of which is now sent.

3. In explanation of the apparent degradation of Yetterajooloo Inoodalial on the dates marginally noted I beg to state that on the 1st November 1862 he appears to have been appointed as 6th English Accountant, as he was found inefficient to discharge the duties of 3rd English Accountant in which appointment he then held. On the remaining occasions he appears to have 15th September 1852
