ORDER OF GOVERNMENT. 23rd July 1867. 1867

Application for grant of gratuity to Subapathy Naicker Gromastah in the Nadomandalum District Munsiff's Court is made on the ground that the applicant is unfit for further service.

2. Medical certificate & the foregoing effect is not produced, but the Civil Judge states that the applicant "is visibly & obviously from his infirmities" & disease, that he is not any longer fit to continue in the Public Service.

3. Under the exceptional circumstances of the case the Gov. in C. orders grant of 2-Subapathy Naicker the gratuity which has been settled, viz. Rs 66 without production of a formal medical certificate, as it is evident that he is not in a fit bodily condition to remain in public employment, notwithstanding that the Medical Officer is unable to declare him to be physically incapacitated.
