

1. Number of pages. 156
2. Date of repair. 25-12-26
3. Initials of Referencer. J
5.7.26

M.R.O. 1-22 409-22-11-20

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Division DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No.

252

Press
Mis.

Dated

16-8-

1867.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Pension and Gratuity.

No. 252.

FROM

THE HON. R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward the enclosed memorial from Custoor Rungiah Naidu, late a Clerk in the Accountant-General's Office, Madras, for the consideration and orders of the Government of India.

2. The original register of application submitted by the Accountant-General showed that the applicant had served for a total period of twenty-five years and twenty-four days; of this, the first three years and three days were passed in the Government Bank, on the abolition of which establishment in 1844 the applicant received a gratuity of 48 Rupees.

3. The Accountant-General recommended that Rungiah Naidu should be allowed to refund the gratuity then received, and that, his service prior to receipt of gratuity, being accepted, a pension of Rupees 19-8-0 per mensem, equal to half his average salary, should be granted to him.

4. Copies of the register of application, of a letter from the Accountant-General, and of the Order* of Government passed thereon, are submitted for the information of the Government of India.

* Pension Department, 27th September 1866, No. 313.

5. I am to observe that the order of Government in this case was in accordance with the instructions laid down in the Despatch of the Honorable Court of Directors, No. 38, 13th May 1856, and a precedent contained in the Resolution of the Government of India, dated 15th March 1861, Financial Department, and that though on two occasions in 1857 this Government allowed as a special case the refund of gratuity, and benefit of previous service, there are, subsequent to that time, no cases in which such indulgence has been permitted, but, on the contrary, refund of gratuity after a great lapse of time has been distinctly disallowed, notwithstanding the recommendation of Heads of Departments. I am further to remark that the applicant cannot, it is submitted, claim a concession under the new rules, which, if granted under the old rules, would not have entitled him to half pension, he not having completed the thirty years' service required to entitle him to half pension under the old rules.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
16th August 1867.

Exd. C. Howarth.

any refund, a pension of Rs 19-8-0 per

Reason.
Police Department.

No. 252.

The Secretary to the Government of India,
Financial Department.

Sir,

I am directed to forward
the enclosed Memorial from Gungiah Naidu, late a clerk in the Accountant General's Office, Madras, for the consideration and orders of the Government of India.

2. The original register of application submitted by the Accountant
General showed that the applicant had served for a total period of 25 years, and 24 days of this, the first 3 years and 3 days were passed in the Government Bank, on the abolition of which Establishment in 1844 the applicant received a gratuity of 48 Rupees.

3. The Accountant General
recommended that Gungiah Naidu should be allowed to refund the gratuity then received, and that,
his service prior to receipt of gratuity,
being accepted, a pension of Rs 19-8-per

per annum equal to his average salary should be granted to him.

4. Copies of the Register of application, of a letter from the Accountant General, and of the order of Government passed thereon, are submitted for the information of the Government of India.

5. I am to observe that the order of Government in this case was in accordance with the instructions laid down in the Despatch of the Honorable Court of Directors B: 38. 13th May 1856, and a precedent contained in the Resolution of the Government of India dated 15th March 1861 Financial Department and that though on two occasions in 1857 this Government allowed as a special case the refund of gratuity, and benefit of previous service, these are, subsequent to that time, in cases in which such indulgence has been permitted, but, on the contrary, refund of gratuity after a great lapse of time has been distinctly disallowed notwithstanding the recommendation of Heads of Departments. I am further to remark that the applicant cannot, it is submitted, claim a concession under the new rules

Pension Dept. 27th Sep. 1866 B: 313.

Fort Saint George
16th August 1867

5
H
rules, which, if granted under the old rules, would not have entitled him to half pension, he not having completed the 30 years service required to entitle him to half pension under the old rules.

7B.

Cond. Recd: 80313 of 23rd Sept 1874

2/4/7811

London 1867 Captain Stuart

7th Nov 1880
1881
18th 25th

to the Secretary of the Society of Antiquaries

St. L. Deptt

Dated 16th August 1867.