The Civil and Session Judge

Vizagapatam

The Examiner of Claims

Madras.

The undersigned has the honor to reforward the register of Application for Pension, together with the printed form duly filled up, for the late District Munsif of Parvatipuram, received, during the adjournment of the Court, with the Examiner's Memo dated 7th May last.

The Applicant has no descriptive marks, and has had no leave of absence with loss of full or half pay during the whole period of his service, other than those already inserted.

The submission of the Application was delayed as his service in the late P. U. and Auxiliary Courts of Vizagapatam had to be verified with the records and it was very difficult, and took some time, to search for them as the old records are not in an arranged state.

Remarks by the head of the Office on past character and conduct of the applicant throughout the service.

Rayhawaran, a painter, has produced copies & authenticates by himself only, of a number of testimonials granted to him by the Officers under whom he had served, and the originals of which he says were mislaid in the Agents Court, where he sent them as directed, for the perusal of the Agent, & does not feel authorized to make any remarks on the strength of these private copies.

The following is a copy of the late Civil Judges remark on the Five Registers.

His length of service and his former reputation entitle him to be regarded as a deserving public servant, but he has served under an entirely different system to that of the regular course, and it is difficult on one's old age to go to school again. I would be for the good of the Public Service that he should accept the pension, which his length of service entitles him to.

3rd Feb^y 1866. Civil & Session Judge
The Manly having completed more than 30 years service & grades eligible to pension, and proving incapable to continue to be at the head of a Court, the High Court in their Proceedings dated 9th May 1866, directed that he should retire from Service and appointing the late Offg.
