Report of the Examiner of Claims Rs 230.

Dated 21st December 1866.
Rae 22.

Verifies the services of Rungas Row late 2^d Assistant of the Raising of the Bellary District.

With an order Rs 29.

order of Govt. 21st January 1866 W. 29.

The Right Honble the Governor in Council observes that Good Service pensions are not given except as the reward of unblemished service, and is not therefore prepared to grant the full amount of pension to Runga Row, since it appears that Runga Row was on one occasion in 1852 suspended, and his salary reduced, in September 1852, for misconduct.

With these exceptions however the character and conduct of the applicant have been generally good, and the Governor in Council directs accordingly that a slight reduction only be made in the amount, and that a pension of Rs 9-8-0 per annum be granted to Runga Row, to have effect from the 21st August 1866.
