In continuation of my letter dated 20th January 1866, I have the honor to submit herewith three more applications for compassionate allowance on behalf of the three individuals marginally noted, they having been omitted to be included in the original list in consequence of certain mistakes made in the Taluks in the preparation of their Service Registers and which mistakes made them appear to be not entitled to the allowance in question. These mistakes have however been since discovered and corrected in the accompanying applications.
